AUSTRO-INDIAN BUSINESS COUNCIL

Mag. Michael Klinger MBA, Partner, Marwah & Partner GmbH (MUP), flanked by Shri Amitabh Kant, Indian Vice Minister for Industrial Policy and Promotion and His Excellency Ambassador Rajiva Misra, India's Ambassador to Austria.

Vienna, Austria (June 22, 2015): Ambassador Rajiva Misra (at a function where visiting Indian Vice Minister Amitabh Kant explained latest developments and results of the successful "Make in India" Initiative to a group of distinguished businessmen in the Austrian capital city), praised the announcement by Marwah und Partner Founder/CEO Raj Marwah of our company's launching and support for a new non-profit two-country business platform called "Austro-Indian Business Council" that would help members discuss, focus and facilitate the needs and queries of businessmen from both countries.

"We fully support and encourage the formation of such a group, and we will help its membership in any way that we can do so.", Misra said to the gathering.

Mr. Marwah, an Indian-born Australian businessman with a 15-year established company in Austria then thanked the Indian Ambassador, the Vice Minister, as well as his Austrian partner Mag. Klinger, and said he was happy that MUP had helped 'things get started'. "Personally", said Marwah, "it is also an opportunity for me to help give something back to the country where I was born!"

Dr. Stefan Stoiber – AIBC President

Dr. Stefan Stoiber, a leading Austrian attorney and expert in international business, accepts Inaugural Presidency of Austro-Indian Business Council.

The Logo of the new „Austro-Indian Business Council – Gesellschaft zur Förderung der Österreichisch-Indischen Wirtschaftsbeziehungen” - was designed by renowned Australian Art-Designer Bruce Baldwin. Here, he combines in a clear and simple way the flags of the two nations symbolizing the vision of the AIBC: to better connect the two countries for business!

“I wish you all the very best. You should act as a bridge, a key catalyst between Austria and India. The business forum should be an effective means of technology transfer, collaboration and providing impetus to the economic relations“.

Vice Minister Amitabh Kant

Make in India: Presentation by Vice Minister Amitabh Kant

"Make in India" is a new program designed to facilitate investment, foster innovation, enhance skill development, protect intellectual property and build best-in class manufacturing. MUP went along to the presentation by Vice Minister Kant.

“India is facing enormous challenges,” said Vice Minister Amitabh Kant (Secretary of the Department of Industrial Policy & Promotion, Ministry of Commerce & Industry), during his presentation at the Austrian Chamber of Commerce in Vienna on June 22nd, “but never before have we been so determined to succeed as under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi”.

Already, India’s economy is growing at 7.5%, which is the fastest rate among big economies. “But we still want to further accelerate this to 9 or 10%”, Kant added, “Success already beckons. Many global manufacturers are coming to our country, not only with production units, but also with their R&D. With our frugal engineering efforts we are sometimes able to reduce cost by almost 90%”. FDI has increased a whopping 38% since the start of the program. India is expecting epochal changes: by 2050 some 700 million people will have moved from rural areas to cities.

Those smart cities will be connected by modern infrastructure, including roads and trains, but also data-highways. “India can be seen at a stage as the US were in the Sixties. While their growth was fueled by cheap energy, we have to make best use of modern technology” Amitabh Kant described the situation”, and we will do so. We invite you -- we invite more Foreign Direct Investment. We are here to help. We have already significantly reduced bureaucracy and continue to do so. We are quickly developing more efficient infrastructure for business. We are building new roads and rail networks, which will reduce transportation times. For instance in some of the major 'cargo corridors', the reduction is from 14 days to 14 hours”.

At Marwah und Partner GmbH we are right in the middle of these changes as we try to help investors not only on their way to India, but also Indian business trying to access the markets in Europe. With the foundation of the AIBC we are right on top of these history-making developments. As Shri Amitabh Kant encourages us all: “Now is the time to invest!”
